

MEDIA RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

From: Beason & Nalley, Inc.
Contact: Sandra R. Baker
101 Monroe Street
Huntsville, AL 35801-4829
Telephone: 256.533.1720
sbaker@beasonnalley.com
www.beasonnalley.com

AMERICAN RECOVERY & REINVESTMENT ACT OF 2009

HUNTSVILLE, AL & RESTON, VA — March 31, 2009 — Donald W. Nalley, Jr., CPA, CVA, AM, ABV; Director and Michael J. Woeber, CPA; Director of Beason & Nalley, Inc. presented to several Small Business Owners at the Huntsville/Madison County Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday, March 31, 2009 regarding the American Recovery & Reinvestment Act of 2009 (ARRA).

Don and Mike explained the impact that this Act will have on Small Business and how a number of business tax breaks were eliminated or reduced in the final negotiations leading up to enactment of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Tax Act of 2009, there remain a wide variety of provisions, many of which will apply to most businesses, some of which are particularly aimed at small business and a number of which will primarily impact particular industries.

Beason & Nalley provides a vast array of specialized tax, audit, consulting, and accounting services. One of the largest public accounting firms in Alabama, Beason & Nalley serves clients in the government contracting, non-profit, state and local government, technology, real estate, and medical sectors. The firm recently expanded its presence into Northern Virginia in April, 2008 in order to better serve their government contractor customers.